PROGRAMMATION

Grant Van Iderstine is a principal, project manager, and project design architect in the Winnipeg office of Smith Carter, where he has worked since 1986. A graduate of the University of Manitoba and the University of Toronto, he is an architect registered in six provinces and a member of the Project Management Institute.

Frozen Music Architecture as Art

Grant Van Iderstine tackles the big questions:
Is architecture an art form? Can it be compared to other arts like sculpture or music?

What makes a building into a work of art?
